101. Deduction of unpaid amounts

The Directors may deduct from any Dividend payable to a member all sums of money presently payable by the member to the company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to shares in the company.

102. Distributions in kind

If the Directors have in accordance with the other provisions of this Constitution determined to pay a Dividend or to return capital by a reduction of capital, a buy-back or otherwise, wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets (including by the issue of shares or other Securities or by the transfer of shares or other Securities in any other body corporate), the Directors may:

- (c) vest any specific assets in trustees;

- (d) sell or cause to be sold any specific assets distributed (or which, save for the operation of this Article 102.(d), would otherwise have been distributed) to any members (or group of members) determined by the Directors in any way and on such terms as the Directors determine in their discretion, including by transferring the assets to a nominee or agent determined by the Directors to sell those assets on behalf of such members, and distributing to such members their proportion of the net proceeds of that sale (as determined by the Directors);
- (e) authorise any person to make, on behalf of all the members entitled to any shares or other Securities, an agreement with the company (or other relevant body corporate) providing for the issue or transfer to them of any further shares or other Securities, and, in executing the document, the person acts as agent and attorney for the members; and
- (f) if the Dividend or reduction of capital is by way of a distribution of shares or other securities in another corporation, then each member is taken to have agreed to become a shareholder or securityholder of that corporation and to have agreed to be bound by the constitution of that corporation. Each member also appoints each Director and each Secretary their agent and attorney to:
 - (i) agree to the member becoming a shareholder or securityholder of that corporation;
 - (ii) agree to the member being bound by the constitution of that corporation; and
 - (iii) execute any transfer of shares or securities, or other document required to give effect to the distribution of shares or other securities to that member.

Nothing in any of paragraphs (a) to (f) above limits anything in any of those other paragraphs.

- (b) Subject to law, all Dividends unclaimed may be invested or otherwise used by the Directors for the benefit of the company until claimed or otherwise disposed of according to law.
- (c) Without limiting Article 103.(b), if the Directors decide to make a payment by electronic funds transfer under Article 103.(a) and an account is not nominated by the member or joint holders in accordance with Article 103.(a), the company may hold the amount payable in a separate account of the company until the member or joint holders nominate an account in accordance with Article 103.(a).
- (d) Payments of Dividends and other distributions by the company may be made in Australian dollars or any other currency determined by the Directors in their discretion. Payments in different currencies may be made to different members as determined by the Directors in their discretion. If a payment is made in a currency other than Australian dollars the Directors may determine in their discretion the appropriate exchange rate and the time of calculation to calculate the amount payable in the relevant currency. The determinations of the Directors are, in the absence of manifest error, final.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

104. Capitalisation of profits

- (a) The company in general meeting or the Directors may resolve:
 - (i) to capitalise any sum, being the whole or a part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve account, profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution to members; and
 - (ii) that the sum referred to in sub-paragraph (i) be applied, in any of the ways mentioned in paragraph (b), for the benefit of members in full satisfaction of their interest in the capitalised sum, in the proportions to which those members would have been entitled in a distribution of that sum by way of Dividend or if there is no such proportional entitlement, as the Directors determine.
- (b) The ways in which a sum may be applied for the benefit of members under paragraph (a) are:

 - (iv) any other application permitted by law or the Listing Rules.
- (c) Where the conditions of issue of a partly paid share so provide, the holder shall be entitled to participate in any application of a sum under paragraph (b) to a greater extent than would have been the case had those funds been distributed by Dividend but not to any greater extent than permitted by the terms of issue.

- (d) The Directors shall do all things necessary to give effect to the resolution referred to in paragraph (a) above and, in particular, to the extent necessary to adjust the rights of the members amongst themselves, may:

- (e) Where the Directors have received a request from a participant in the plan in respect of certain shares that shares in the company be allotted and issued to the participant in accordance with the plan and the Directors decide in their absolute discretion to comply with that request, the rights attaching to the shares the subject of the request shall not be taken to have been varied although the Dividend is not paid on all of the shares in the class and although all of the shares in the class do not rank in calculating the number of fully paid shares to be allotted and issued to the participant in accordance with the plan.
- (f) In offering opportunities to members to participate in the plan, the Directors may give such information as in their opinion may be useful to assist members in assessing the opportunity and making requests to their best advantage.
